

Poinsettia Sponsors and Intentions:

- 1) Anthony Rini (3 plants) in memory of: Roger & Joanne Rini, Anne & Larry LoCicero, and John & Eileen DeWitt.
- 2) Annie Spang & Will Cowen (1 plant)
- 3) Patty Mycroft (1 plant) in memory of: Dotty & Milton Kamenides, and Lena & Frederick Mycroft, Sr.
- 4) The Kornet Family (1 plant)
- 5) Rue Wilson (1 plant) in memory of Rue's sister, Linda Heslop, who loved Christmas.
- 6) Peter Sexton (1 plant) in memory of civilian deaths in Gaza and Israel.
- 7) Tiriyaki Family (1 plant)
- 8) Carol Martin (1 plant) in memory of Jack Martin.
- 9) Joan Kovach (1 plant) in memory of Jean and Bill Stack who gave their 10 kids many Merry Christmases.
- 10) Sarah & Noah Stuart (2 plants): One for our parents with love and one for our children with love.
- 11) Penny Myles (1 plant) in memory of Art Myles.

Christmas Eve 2023 Musician Bios

Nick Capodilupo is a graduate of Hingham High School where he performed in numerous musicals and was captain of the football team. He is currently in his senior year as a vocal performance major at Ithaca College. Last year, Nick sang the national anthem at Yankee Stadium, played the lead role of Frederic in The Pirates of Penzance, took a master class with leading opera singer Lawrence Brownlee, and enrolled in Si Parla Si Canta, a four-week opera program in northern Italy where he trained with accomplished opera singers and perform throughout the country.

Karin Foley earned a Masters of Music in vocal performance from The Boston Conservatory, Boston, MA, and a Bachelor's of Music in Music Education from Nyack College, Nyack, NY. Karin has soloed for the Arlington Chorale in Arlington, MA, The Fine Arts Chorale in Weymouth, MA, and has performed with the MIT Chorus accompanied by The Boston Pops Orchestra. Karin sings with the Unicorn Singers of Hingham, MA, teaches privately in her voice studio, and is an elementary music educator in the Pembroke Public School System.

Felix Stuart is a ninth-grade student at Milton Academy. He began studying Suzuki Guitar at the age of four. Currently, Felix studies classical guitar with Dr. Robert Bekkers and jazz guitar with Kevin Scollins. Felix performs with Milton Academy's jazz ensemble.